A POLITICAL TURNCOAT.

A DEMOCRAT FOR REVENUE WHO POSES AS SIMON PURB.

Tompie, the Traitor, Would Perpetrate Himself on the Administration for Patronage—A Specimen of His Democracy.

FROM THE NEWS, JUNE 17, 1892.

The Way to Win.—Democrats are pretending to find courage and hope in the theory that the Republican party is going to prove itself weak in the campaign and at the polls by reason of disappointments and diversions. To hear them talk a foolish person might suppose that the Democracy was in a condition of blissful harmony, to which the heavenly choirs can make only a feeble and quavering approach; that its leaders were already disintegrated of every ambition save only to promote the triumph of pure goodness, and that the universe was about to behold the sweet and solemn advent of the millennium under Democratic auspices.

We cannot admit, even for the sake of argument, that this is really the present state of our friends, the enemy, or bears any resemblance to any conceivable future state of theirs. In point of fact they are much distressed and harassed by their own prospects, realizing that to get a leader they will probably be forced to choose between two implacable foes, one of whom is attended by a squad of ponderous blunder-bushes and the other by a company of agile razor-bearers.

(Daily News October 6, 1892.)

OUR CANDIDATE.

In this issue of the News will be found the announcement of Judge G. N. Perkins as a candidate for the legislature from the Twenty-fifth district. The Judge is a colored gentleman, and the News desires to go on record so far as he is concerned. We are for him first, last and all the time. Vote early and as often as you can. He will stand like a Hercules for the principles that Lincoln and Seward advocated. Judge Perkins is a typical Afro-American. Nominate Perkins and success will crown the efforts of those who are struggling for advancement. Trifle with those black-skinned brothers no longer. Forbearance passes to be a virtue when you lock the school house door. Education is just what the colored race are seeking for. This they must have—this is just what such men as Judge Perkins intend they shall have. Elect Judge Perkins as a legislator and then this newspaper will herald to the world that you Republicans are sincere.

The following editorial from Tompie's effort of March 30, 1892, well illustrates his record as a democrat and shows conclusively his claims for patronage at the hands of the party.

VOTE STRAIGHT.

Some of the "lilly-white" and democrats are urging voters to not elect negroes to office. One particular reason more weighty than any other that is brought to bear, is that we already have a large negro population, and to select negroes would encourage them to come here in large numbers.

This may be so, and we do not deny it, but they are editors and fellow republicans, and every loyal republican will vote the straight ticket, negroes and all.

Further, the negroes are a desirable portion of our population, and we ought to encourage them to come and settle among us. If there are any white trash who do not like these sentiments, let such move out.

The negroes are republicans almost to a man. Many of them are among our most enterprising and useful citizens, and the more of them we have the better for the party and city.

If democrats and "lilly-white" republicans don't like it, let such move out.

And in the same issue appeared this another sample of his Democracy:

COME UP TO THE RACK.

If there is a Republican in this city who cannot, conscientiously, walk to the polls on election day and vote the straight, unadulterated, Republican ticket for city officers, then we want his name, from whence he came, his antecedents; in fact, his pedigree. If there is a Republican in this town who will vote for a Democrat, we want to know him; we have a chronos for him, and it is an even bet that the scoundrel never "shot to kill." He must have been a commissariat, a driver of a mule team, or a sixty-days' soldier for what there was in it.

Come, men; come, soldiers; come, negroes; let us elect men who stood shoulder to shoulder during the war against these devils who endeavor to break up the grandest galaxy of states, or principalities, that ever combined together for advancement.

These negro-haters, like wolves, conceal themselves until election day is near. Then they use the taxes collected from the common people to further their interests. Watch them. They are frauds. They are the descendants of a people who lashed the backs of black men until the red blood flowed down from the cruel cuts satisfied their fiendish delight.

Vote to put Democrats in office. Never.

(Guthrie News, Jan. 17, 1893.)

REPUBLICANS KICK.

A Rousing Meeting and Some Eting Resolutions—A Ticket on Which Both Black and White Republicans are Represented.

While Dr. Slocum's orchestra made music for a few to trip the light fantastic last evening in the legislative hall, there was a "meeting" held across the street. It was a meeting in every sense of the word.

Republicans were present. They were, it is true, disaffected Republicans, and the disaffection arose from the late ticket put in the field by the county convention.

There were present representative men, workers—men who always try to win for the Republican party; men who said in plain words: "Give us a ticket, a Republican ticket that we can, conscientiously vote for," and not a "ticket nominated by the aid of Democrats' dollars."

Here is the ticket that these straight out white and black Republicans put in the field.

It is a good one. (Here followed the names of the Republican candidates.)

VALUE OF ADVERTISING.

Notable Gathering of Men Who Have Learned It Through Experience. Printers Ink contains an interesting account of a dinner of world-renowned advertisers recently held at the Royal Venetian chambers, Holborn, on the invitation of the London agent of that bright little journal.

Representatives of almost every business were in attendance, and if there was any doubt of the profit arising from judicious advertising in the minds of those present at the commencement of the dinner it was dispelled before the close.

The value of advertising as a means of reaching the public and thereby reaping handsome profits, was dwelt upon in the several speeches and endorsed by the company, whose members represented a daily expenditure in advertising alone of more than $15,000, or $5,000,000 a year.

How advertising could be encouraged to an extent commensurate with the benefits arising to the advertiser therefrom was the subject discussed at the gathering, which was as unique in conception as its carrying out was successful.

A CURIOUS INDIAN RELIC.

Finding of a Stone Worn by Ancient Native Priests.

Not long ago there was dug up in Ashland, Ore., a curious stone with some dim and crude inscription upon it. It being shown to an old Oregon pioneer, he pronounced it a temane, was stone, worn as a breastplate by the ancient Indian priests.

It has holes in the corners by which it may be hung upon the priest's neck. It carries upon it a picture of the sacred wigwam, and at one end of the wigwam stands the totem pole, on the top of which a little flag was hung that warned the evil spirits off, while the priest performed his divine functions in the sacred house or wigwam.

This temane was very coincident with the breastplate of the Egypt, worn by the ancient Jewish priests, so that the picture on this stone may represent the primary ancestor of all the temples ever dedicated in the world, and all flags and liberty poles of all nations and countries may possibly be the lineal descendants of the original totem represented on the stone. Probably this Ashland stone is the only one of the kind now in existence.

GRADUATED ESTATE TAX.

TOPICKA, Kan., Oct. 8.—A number of state senators and others interested in Lieutenant Governor Daniels' graduated estate scheme met here yesterday to discuss the measure and formulate plans for gaining friends for it. It was decided after a short conference that it would be better to postpone the matter till after the November elections, as it is desired that the measure shall be presented to the public as a non-partisan scheme. The conference was, therefore, adjourned till November 15.

THE MAN KILLED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 6.—The rioting which has been in progress in the Big Four shops in Indianapolis developed into a running battle, resulting in the death of one man, James Pitts, and the serious injury of J. C. Rile, superintendent of the Peoria and Eastern division. The company has six non-union boiler-makers at work in the shop, guarded by eight special police.

GERMAN IMMIGRANT ROBBED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The department of state has a dispatch from Secretary Fishback, now in charge of the legation at Buenos Ayres, stating that the revolution is at an end, and peace prevails throughout the country.

BATTLED BY THE WIND.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Battled by light winds the yachts Vigilant and Valkyrie, which started yesterday on the first of the international races for the America's cup, were compelled to abandon the contest.

ARMORE MINERS WILL NOT STRIKE.

MACON, Mo., Oct. 6.—The Kansas and Texas coal miners at Ardmore have decided not to make any demand for the present for an increase in wages for mining coal this winter, but will work on at fifty cents per ton, the summer price, until the financial situation grows better. There is no change at Ardmore.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

Is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither mineral nor oil. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff, and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Root Hair Grower. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $2.00 per bottle; 6 for $10.00. 100¢ per jar; 6 for $5.00.
